Mindcage

In my head is something wrong. I can't explain, what's going on. The noose around my neck is real tight. Please freeze me in for no more sin. A dark seed is growing in my brain. All my prayers where in vain. I lose control, I lose myself. Please freeze me in for no more sin. All the things you want to do your mindcage never lets you. I tried to pretend, that I am wrong, but my mindcage is too strong. I feel my insanity, the stupid stuff I always see. Is it real or all I feel. Please freeze me in for no more sin. All these insane phantasies, in front of Jesus on my knees. All these lies and all the sins. Please freeze me in for no more sin. All the things you want to do your mindcage never lets you. I tried to pretend, that I am wrong, but my mindcage is too strong. All my insane phantasies, in front of Jesus on my knees.

Can You Hear Me

Everything is calm, everything is quiet. There is no harm and I feel alright. Raindrops are running down my face. I look up the sky with ease and laze. Can you hear me, when I call your name. Can you see me, can you feel my pain. Everything was calm, everything was quiet. There was no harm and I felt alright. Teardrops are running down my face. I looked up the sky with ease and laze. Can you hear me, when I call your name. Can you see me, can you feel my pain.

Last Rose

When you read this letter I'll be away. I know it is not right, but I can't stay. Maybe you'll never understand the reason why, but I need the freedom, I want to fly. Oh please forgive me, but something has to change. I'm not the man, I used to be. Maybe I love you, maybe I can't, share my life with anyone. I never knew, I never saw, I never felt like this before and in my dreams I wanted more. When you wake up early, look on your bed. A last rose will be there, but don't be sad. I will always remember our dreams, but you know that nothing is like it seems. Oh please forgive me, but something has to change. I'm not the man, I used to be. Maybe I love you, maybe I can't, share my life with anyone.

The End

Snow in summer, rain in winter, storm every day and frost in may. Floods are coming, people are running, start to pray and seize that day. Is this the end? (I'm feeling so cold tonight) Is this what they meant? (There's no one to hold me tight) Is this the end? (I'm screaming into the night) Is this what they meant? (In the end there is no light) Hear them screaming, when they are dreaming, because they feel their dream is real. It's their last vision in their last mission. They stopped to pray, and died that day. Is this the end? (I'm feeling so cold tonight) Is this what they meant? (There's no one to hold me tight) Is this the end? (I'm screaming into the night) Is this what they meant? (In the end there is no light) This is the End!

Hold Me

I'm waiting outside this world, looking down. I don't know if you exist, I'm feeling so frown. Just take a look at the stars and then you will see me. I'm the middle of the dark. I'm the middle of the seed. Touch me, kiss me, love me and hold me deep. We've got the mightiest power just to survive and our life will be together now when we stay alive. I'm everywhere, where you are, I'm imprisoned in your heart. Like we are walking hand in hand through the sky into the stars. Touch me, kiss me, love me and hold me deep. I'm waiting outside this world, looking down. I don't know if you exist, I'm feeling so frown. Just take a look at the stars and then you will see me. I'm the middle of the dark. I'm the middle of the seed. Touch me, kiss me, love me and hold me deep.

Citylights

Walking through the nights, through the citylights. In each chartred street no one to meet. Maybe I'll find you here to destroy my fear in this fierce fight in every night. Away, away from you. You know it would come true. Away, away today. No reason to stay. Blended by the nights of the citylights. Nothing I can see, where I want to be. So is every night, I play Jekyll and Hyde and give in to my fate: The things I hate. Away, away from you. You know it would come true. Away, away today. No reason to stay. Away, away from you. You know it would come true. Away, away today. No reason to stay.

Tears Have No Colors

Hey soldier, think about it to your gun. The people you just shoot dead aren't often older than your son. Hey soldier, in the evening you start to cry. You see the pictures of your friends, next day you see how they die. Tears have no colors, there's no language when we cry. You're nation doesn't matter, there's just one heaven when we die. Hey soldier, in your dreams you're far away. You're with your children, with your wife, but have to fight the next day. Hey soldier, look inside your memories. Lay down your blindness and your guns, get on the street to fight for peace. Tears have no colors, there's no language when we cry. You're nation doesn't matter, there's just one heaven when we die.

Nightfall

This is the nightfall, when the angels die. It's just the time they start to cry. This is the nightfall, the light fades away. The darkness comes to kill the day. Conjuro et confirmo super vos Angeli fortis Dei, et sancti, in nomine Adonay. Conjuro te Michael, Angeli magna, qui es praepositus Diei Dominicae. It is the nightfall, when your spirits fly. It's just the time the world's a lie. It is the nightfall, it awakes your fear, with every new sound you can hear. It is the nightfall, the world falls asleep. The dreams will come so deep, so deep. And it is the nightfall, never turn around or you can feel the dark inbound. And after the nightfall, hope the day will come or you will stay forever undone. Dive into thr nightfall, open up your soul, fall deeper into this dark hole. This is the nightfall.

Prayer

I'm flying through heaven, looking for god. Looking for the angels, dreaming a lot. Where could he be there, out in the sky? Because my long voyage can't end in a lie. Please give me back, what's belonging to me. Please send your light for me to see. What can I tell you, when I find you at last? Because all I need, is only one cast. I'm screaming out loud, into the sky: Please help me out, with another try! Please give me back, what's belonging to me. Please send your light for me to see.
